

ALL OVER LAFAYETTE

News Letters From The Intelligencer's Busy Correspondents.

THE REFLEX OF WHAT IS TRANSPIRING LOCALLY

Grist From Higginsville—General Local News of Inestimable Value.

HIGGINSVILLE HAPPENINGS.

Letter From the Intelligencer's Correspondent.

Opal Guard is visiting in Aullville. Bert Shelton, of Slater Sundayed in city. Frank Nossor, of Kansas City, spent day here. Mrs. Barnes, of Aullville, was in this Tuesday. Mrs. Land made a flying trip to Ocala, Kansas. Mrs. Laura Welborn, of Aullville, shopping here. S. Robt. Wells and son, Tracy, visited Odessa this week. A. Daenising, of Concordia, is visiting friends in this city. J. Phillips, of Aullville, spent day in Higginsville. Mrs. Anna Groves, of Corder, was a Higginsville visitor Friday. Mrs. Mary Willie Redd, of Dover, is visiting Mrs. H. C. Sydnor. S. J. L. Littlejohn, of Aullville, shopping here Tuesday. J. A. Baepfer, of Concordia, was Higginsville visitor Monday. Mrs. Daisy Kincheloe has returned on visit to Marshall friends. Mrs. Maude Bellew is visiting Miss John Fulkerson in Lexington. J. Brockman, of Concordia, made a business trip to this city Monday. Mrs. Carol Hutchason, of St. Joseph, is on Monday here with his parents. Mrs. Bessie Mattingly, of Odessa, is visiting Misses Ida and Julia Torp. J. Fowler and Mr. Allison made a business trip to St. Louis this week. Messrs. Hub and Ed. Winn, of Dover, are "Friends" in this city Sunday. Mrs. and Mrs. J. T. Mathews, of Dover, are calling on our merchants Monday. Mrs. and Mrs. J. T. Wilson, of Mayfield, called on our merchants Tuesday. S. Rankin, of Lexington, made a business trip to Higginsville Tuesday. M. H. Burns, a well known farmer, of Aullville, was in town Tuesday. Mrs. M. C. James entertained the Minister League Thursday night. S. W. R. Journey left Tuesday morning to visit relatives in Plattsburg. Mrs. Offie Carter, of Kansas City, called her uncle, Dr. R. C. Carter, last night. Mrs. Ida Van Anglen returned Saturday from a week's visit in Warrensburg. S. H. H. Elling and daughter, Miss S. of Concordia, were in Higginsville Tuesday. Mr. Fuhr, Henry Mollenkamp, Cook and Geo. Rohring spent Sunday in Concordia. Mrs. Mary Ridings, one of Lexington's fair daughters, is visiting Miss Preston in this city. Mrs. and Mrs. Lafayette Groves, of Lexington, spent Sunday with Mrs. Groves' mother, Mrs. L. E. Hartman. Misses Lena and Virginia McDaniel and Miss Fannie Caldwell, near here, several days last week. Mrs. Nathan Corder, of Corder and J. W. Harrison, of Odessa, were out of town shoppers Tuesday. Mrs. Lydia Kuhne who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Gus. Hofer, returned home in Wentzville Wednesday morning. Ferd Kroeueke and sister, Miss returned to their home in Concordia Saturday evening, after a week's visit with the Misses Cook. Mrs. Norma Feidenburger, of Ambia, has been visiting friends in city. Prof. Feidenburger was principal of the High school here several years ago. While here he won many friends. He enters Harvard this fall having won the scholarship at the Missouri State University.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Hogan, of near Waverly, were shopping in Higginsville Friday.

Garland Webb and Mrs. W. C. Webb have returned from a trip to points in Colorado.

J. Shannon Carter, of Kansas City, spent Sunday with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Carter.

Ed. Webb, of Kansas City, came down Tuesday night for a visit with his brother, Dr. W. C. Webb.

B. C. Ridge and Capt. Belt went to Lexington Wednesday morning as witnesses in the Shelby case.

Misses Mollie Webb and Minnie Fitzgerald, of Kansas City, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Grimes, of this city.

Mr. Burdette returned to his home in Topeka Kansas Sunday after a short visit to Miss Florence Beamer.

Prof. W. C. Sebring returned from Marshall Sunday evening. He has been engaged in institute work there.

Misses Warren, of Arkansas, are visiting the Misses Ridge at their pleasant home, "Castle Ridge" near this city.

Mr. Wipperman, of Kansas City, came in Saturday evening for a visit with the family of Henry Tieman near this city.

Misses Hilda and Anna Opel who are spending the summer with their sister, Mrs. Jno. Rabsahl, spent Sunday in Kansas City.

Misses Marie Endly and Mayme Melks, Dr. Al. and Henry Erdman spent Sunday at the home of Sam Erdman, near Alma.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Groeneman took charge of the Merchants hotel Tuesday morning. We bespeak for them a liberal patronage.

Floyd Smiley, one of our former Higginsville boys, but now located in Denver, Col., arrived in this city Sunday evening to spend two weeks with relative and friends.

Oscar and Chas. Hofer and Asa Staley, of this city, witnessed the base ball game between the Schmelzers, of Kansas City and the Board of Trade team of Concordia Sunday.

The German Evangelical C. A. society here a social at the home of Chas. Meinershagen Thursday evening. Music, games and refreshments helped to make a very pleasant evening.

Saturday morning as C. F. Grimes was pounding up peach stones a large piece of the seed flew up and struck him on the right eye causing considerable inflammation and a very sore eye for several days.

Rev. T. S. M. Kenney, of Plattsburg, a former pastor of the Baptist church here, arrived in this city Tuesday evening to visit former parishioners. He conducted services at the Baptist church Wednesday evening.

DOVER DOINGS.

The Dover public school begins Sept. 9.

Pet Cole, of Lexington, was on our streets Thursday.

S. R. Plattenburg spent several days in Higginsville last week.

Geo. Zeysing made a business trip to Kansas City Thursday evening.

Sam. C. Neale, of Higginsville, was here last Saturday on a business trip. Col. J. Q. Plattenburg, of Lexington, was here several days this week on business.

Marjorie, the little daughter, of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vaughan, who has been quite ill is better.

Rev. Orrison, of Grand Pass, filled his regular appointments here last Sunday at the Christian church.

Willis Harwood, who has been a sufferer for years with severe headaches about twice a month, went up to Kansas City Monday to consult Dr. Grifith and possibly to have an operation performed.

Martin, the piano man, arrived here Thursday.

Philip Rahm, of Higginsville, was here Monday.

Sam Shoemaker has moved his family to Higginsville.

Oliver Martin is in Boonville this week loading walnut logs.

Walter Beattie shipped a car of fat cattle to Kansas City Thursday.

Capt. Redd is in Lexington this week as a witness in the Shelby case.

Albert Lewis made a business trip to the city of Higginsville Monday.

Sam. E. Vaughan is in Carroll county this week visiting friends and relatives.

Ed. Yingling and little daughter, of Lexington, were in our city Sunday evening.

Joe Bertrand is building a new blacksmith shop south of house on South Mill street.

Bob Montague, one of the most genial and hustling drummers on the road, was here Thursday looking after his trade.

Mrs. Mary Carter and daughter, Vivian, of Kansas City, are visiting the family of Capt. W. A. Redd and other relatives.

Prof. Washburn, the new principal of our public school, arrived here last week. He appears to be a very pleasant gentleman.

Warren Ray has sold his livery barn to Thos. E. Vaughan. Mr. Vaughan takes possession Sept. 10. Consideration $500.

Miss Lorraine Cather, who has been confined to her room for several months with a badly strained limb received by a fall, is able to be about again.

Tom Corbin is adding very much to the appearance of his drug store by having the exterior of it covered with galvanized iron. It now has the appearance of a stone building.

James E. Winn, Geo. Gordon, Lee Slusher, Henry Reinhardt and Lynn Gordon went out dove hunting Tuesday and bagged 151 doves. Lynn Gordon headed the list with 40 doves.

The Twentieth Century National Convention of the Christian church meets in Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 10-17. Elder Geo. Plattenburg, both by the local committee and general committee at Cincinnati, has been invited to deliver an address on Sunday, Oct. 13.

J. M. Redd is now dieting on liquid food not from choice but necessity. One night the first of the week he had toothache and to relieve the pain he attempted to soak the tooth in croasote when a good portion of the drug went down his throat making it a very sore member. He is slowly improving at this time.

Jas. F. Winn, who sold his business here to Sam Pyle several weeks since will go into business in Lexington about Oct. 1. Jim was here for a number of years and made a host of warm friends by his courteous treatment and fair dealings, who regret to see him leave, but will wish him abundant success in his new home.

NEWS FROM AULLVILLE.

Uncle Jack Cooksey, an Old Citizen, Dead—Local Notes.

John Nevil, of Chickasha, is here on a few days' visit.

Our school will begin here on the 9th of September.

Melt Harris is getting along very well from his hurt.

Lee Benton, of Higginsville, is talking of moving to this place.

Steward Santmeyer will soon have our new school house finished.

R. A. Roberts' little child has been very sick but is some better now.

Mr. Weidman, of Lexington, was in our town Wednesday on his way home.

John Doulgers was in Lexington last Sunday visiting his son and daughter.

Talbot Simpson and George Young shipped two loads of stock from here Monday.

Sam Neale, of Higginsville, was in our town Wednesday on business for the INTELLIGENCER.

Mr. McDonnell, of Pleasant Hill, was in our town this week in the interest of the telephone line.

Mrs. Dr. Watson, of Independence, came down last Sunday to visit her brother, John Jones.

Mr. Lewellyn and wife of Higginsville, passed through here last Sunday on the way to their farm.

Uncle Jack Cooksey, one of our old settlers, died last Saturday morning and was buried Sunday morning at the Republican cemetery.

WELLINGTON AND VICINITY.

News Notes From that Thriving Lafayette County Town.

(BY LEALMA.)

Isaac Gatz of Lexington was here Monday.

Fred Dravel and wife spent Sunday in Levasy.

Turner Smith of Waterloo transacted business here Monday.

Godfred Roedel and daughter, Miss Katie, Sundayed with friends in Higginsville.

W. B. Emison shipped 64 head of cattle and 50 head of hogs to Kansas City Monday.

A. J. Kirehoffer and Weiman Crutinger transacted business in Kansas City Monday.

Henry Kemmer of Lexington township was meeting old friends in Wellington Tuesday.

Z. W. Wright of Kansas was here for a day or two this week looking after his family interests.

James M. Callahan and George Clinton of Independence, Mo. were here for a short time Saturday.

Pearl Workman came down from Independence Monday and will remain on his father's farm for awhile.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hardin are both on the sick list and have been confined to their room for several days.

Rad Ashcraft started Monday morning for a visit to his father, Simpson (Choo) Ashcraft, near Falls City, Neb.

Miss Olynda Holte who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. A. F. Oberhelman, returned to her home in Napoleon Monday.

Miss Myrtle Willfred of Woodbine, Kansas, who has been visiting here left for Kansas City Wednesday morning enroute home.

Fred Kreitz, Sr., went to Kansas City Tuesday to purchase a new and longer press for use in his vineyard southwest of town.

Thos. C. Lauderdale and wife Tuesday sold to Robert J. Rankin the 80 acre farm situated five miles southwest of here. Consideration, $4,200.

Rev. E. J. Sebold left Tuesday morning to attend a meeting of ministers of the German Evangelical church at Blackburn this week.

The Wellington mills are running to full capacity every day in the week now, only one-half day being taken for the purpose of cleaning up.

Miss Mable Jarvis who has been visiting numerous friends here for the past six weeks returned to her home in Kansas City Saturday morning.

Mrs. Hammer of Odessa was here Tuesday looking after the locating of a beautiful and costly monument now being placed at the grave of her late husband in Mount Olivet cemetery.

For the first six months in the year 1901 the aggregate shipments and receipts from Wellington were more than double by several hundred dollars the business done during same period of 1900.

The five or six men who have been engaged in moving telegraph poles over to the new right-of-way from Carter's to the Exchange mine west of the line completed the work and left Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Wills of Independence, Mo. Sundayed with his brother, H. G. Wills of this city. Misses Julia and Minnie Larkin of St. Louis who are visiting Mrs. Mills, at Independence, accompanied them.

Mayor W. J. Carpenter went to Toronto, Kansas, Sunday evening for a few days stay with the family of his brother-in-law, T. M. Samuels, returning Wednesday, accompanied by his little daughter, Annie, who has been out there for several weeks.

City butcher, John Larkin, was doing more talking than was prudent while cutting a steak for one of his female customers Saturday evening and as a result is nursing a finger that was almost severed, taking part of the nail. John won't say whether his wife is sorry or not.

Officials of the Mo. Pac. Wednesday closed a contract with the Wellington Mill Company for all of their land lying south of the railroad, thereby practically assuring the building of a new depot to the profound joy of almost every man, woman and child in the whole neighborhood.

A man living in Sedalia, whose name could not be learned, while at work on the cut for the railroad west of town was overcome by heat Wednesday but soon recovered and returned to work but was shortly prostrated a second time being rendered unconscious and almost thrown into convulsions and Dr. Mann was sent for and at last accounts the man was doing well.

George Muench of Augusta after a stay of about two months with his uncle, Robert Linss, left Wednesday for Chicago and will spend the winter there with his father and attend school. Arthur Winklemeyer took a day off from his duties in the postoffice and accompanied him as far as Sedalia for an outing.

FROM MAYVIEW.

Old Fashion Neighborhood Picnic.

Attended a Wedding, Etc.

Mr. and Miss C. M. Purnell were in town Monday.

Ed. Rayland, of Higginsville, spent Wednesday here.

Rufus Marshall, of El Reno, O. K., is visiting his parents here.

Mrs. Virgie Puckett and infant son are visiting at T. T. Puckett's north of town.

Miss Dora Darrell, of near Sedalia, visited Mrs. Laura Graves here last week.

Several from Mayview attended the band concert in Higginsville Friday night.

Miss Kate Bullard is spending several weeks with Mrs. Dr. Major in Sedalia.

Ben McElroy and two daughters, of Warrensburg, visited with H. J. McElroy last week.

Mrs. Hugh Smith and Miss Tarleton Belles have returned home from a delightful stay at Pertle Springs.

An impromptu moonlight picnic given by some of our young people was much enjoyed Wednesday evening.

Miss Pearl Winn came in from Marshall Sunday morning, where she had been attending summer school for some weeks.

Miss May Russell and brother, of Kansas City, accompanied by Miss Murphy are visiting Mrs. Tom Hammonds.

There is a great demand for rent houses here now. Several families, unable to secure residences have rented vacant store rooms.

Mrs. Albert Tyree has returned from a visit to Marshall, Mo., where she attended the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Clemmens to Mr. John Kirkpatrick, Aug. 19, at the Cumberland Presbyterian church. The bride is a very charming young woman and the best wishes of her many friends here attend the couple.

About eight friends met at the home of Dave Staley east of here in an old fashioned neighborhood picnic Saturday, 24th. An elegant dinner was served on the lawn, after doing justice to which the afternoon was spent in music and recitations. The affair was in honor of Miss Lee Staley's birthday, and proved very delightful.

HODGE HAPPENINGS.

Death of a Child from Whooping Cough—General News.

(BY IMPRISIMATUR.)

John Zeyzing of near Waverly was here trading last Friday.

Mrs. P. T. Walter who has been on the sick list this week is much better at this writing.

Edward Edwards and family who have been visiting relatives and friends at Lexington last week returned home Monday.

Edwards and Edwards are buying a good deal of cordwood this fall. It is hot now but it will come in very useful this winter.

P. H. Rahm of Higginsville who is traveling salesman for J. M. Anderson grocery made his usual trip through here on Monday.

R. V. Montague drumming for Riley-Wilson grocery house of Kansas City was here on Wednesday. He sold Edwards & Edwards, the merchants here, a nice bill.

E. J. Edwards made a flying trip to his old home in Caline county last Sunday. He goes down home quite often, but he gets homesick and goes down to see his mother.

E. W. Baker, our enterprising mill man, made a business trip to Waverly Tuesday. While there he purchased a ten acre tract of timberland lying east of this place from Mr. Glynn.

W. E. Pangborne's little baby who had been quite sick for the past two weeks with whooping cough and a complication of other diseases died Tuesday evening. The remains were interred in the Waverly cemetery Wednesday.